Resources for further research:

Books:

"It Tolled for New Mexico", Eva Matson
"Beyond Courage", Dorothy Cave
"Carlos A Tale of Survival", J.L. Kunkle
"Silent Voices of World War II When Sons of the Land of Enchantment met Sons of the Land of the Rising Sun", Everett M. Rogers and Nancy R. Barlit
"Tell Me Another War Story The Life of Evans Garcia", Margaret Garcia
See extensive reading list on the Bataan-Corregidor Memorial Foundation of New Mexico website www.bcmfofnm.org

Websites:

The Bataan-Corregidor Memorial Foundation of New Mexico, Inc.
http://www.bcmfofnm.org/

Catalogued information about each camp, the Hell ships, and the POWs www.mansell.com

A list of those from the 200th MIA or buried in the Manila American Cemetery, Philippines https://www.abmc.gov/db-abmc-burial-unit/200th-coast-artillery-regiment

a good account of the situation on Bataan http://www.americainwwii.com/articles/the-battling-bastards-of-bataan/

a first-hand account of conditions at the 92nd garage https://www.anastasiaharman.com/2019/08/14/army-92nd-garage/

a description of the 200th & 515th and their role in the Battle of Bataan https://www.cabq.gov/parksandrecreation/parks/veterans-memorial-park/documents/WWIIEraFromANewMexicanPerspective.pdf

White Sands Missile Range Museum- overview of the 200th https://wsmrmuseum.com/2022/02/22/the-200th-coast-artillery-regiment-and-the-bataan-death-march/6/

Taos Historical Society description of 200th CA and the events on Bataan and as POWs https://taoscountyhistoricalsociety.org/photogallery.html

Museums, Monuments and Art:

New Mexico Military Museum (Bataan Memorial Military Museum) history of the NM National Guard from General Pershing to present.

Bataan Memorial Park, Albuquerque, NM (on Lomas west of Carlisle)

Heroes of Bataan Monument, Las Cruces, NM

Walls of the Missing, Manila American Cemetery, Fort Bonafacio, Taguig City, Philippines 36,000+ names inscribed

"Colors of Courage, Sons of New Mexico, Prisoners of Japan", a film by Anthony Martinez & Scott Henry Winner Best Documentary 2004 Taos International Film Festival watch: https://www.silverhornmedia.com/colors-of-courage-documentary/or contact Anthony at: tony@silverhornmedia.com

Ben Steele, artist (find his book at Amazon.com)

Events:

>Ceremony annually in Santa Fe on April 9

>Ceremony annually at Bataan Memorial Park, Albuquerque on the Saturday closest to April 9

>Yearly visits to Japan for former POWs or their descendants hosted by the Japanese-American POW Friendship Program (through the Japanese government)

>2009 Japanese Ambassador, Ichiro Fujisaki, addressing the last convention of The American Defenders of Bataan & Corregidor in San Antonio makes a formal apology on behalf of the Japanese government

>*2002 New Mexico State Legislature passes Senate Joint Memorial 91 requiring NM schools to teach about the 200th & 515th WW2 experiences, because "this ordeal is honored in the memory of far too few adult New Mexicans and not at all in the minds of our school children, who have not been taught of these events".

>Bataan Memorial Death March, WSMR, yearly in March or April

Groups & Organizations:

American Defenders of Bataan & Corregidor Memorial Society (national group)

Bataan-Corregidor Memorial Foundation of New Mexico

Honors & Awards:

4 Presidential Unit Citations, United States

Presidential Unit Citation, Philippines

New Mexico Special MacArthur Service Medal aka the 200th CAC Philippine Service Medal, or the Bataan Medal

Bronze Star awarded to all Defenders of Bataan and Corregidor 1983

Gold Medal, Philippines 2018 ??

2022 the 200th was inducted as an "Honored Unit" into the NMNG Hall of Honor, (New Mexico Military Museum)